Editor's Note

Dear colleagues,

Child India's inaugural edition was released at the Inaugural Ceremony of the just concluded Mega Event - Pedicon 2018 - The 55th National Conference of IAP at Nagpur.

We try to capture some of the images of one of the best - may the THE BEST - organised Pedicons in recent times. Trendsetters in each sphere of event management were seen in action and this along with a wonderfully scripted scientific program and the famous Nagpur hospitality to boot made it an event to remember. Kudos and a million thanks from all IAPians to the Team Nagpur.

Our President, Dr Santosh Soans in his acceptance speech only touched upon his vision for IAP in the coming year and in this issue of CHILD INDIA, he attempts to crystallise his Action Plans 2018-19 along his HSG Dr Remesh and his OB and EB. We wish him and his team all success.

We request members to send in 1-2 pictures of activities with a brief caption to childindia.newsetter@gmail.com - preference would be given to activities related to Presidential Action Plans. Zonal Vice Presidents are requested to give a brief 1 page report of activities in their Zone.

President's message

Dear Colleague,

It is with great joy that I greet you as the new President of Central IAP. This is my first letter to you after my Presidential Installation during NAGPUR PEDICON on 4th January.

Nagpur Pedicon was a memorable event which I shall always fondly remember. Colleagues of Nagpur presented a superb conference and they deserve our gratitude for putting in the hard work. The goodness that they exuded in their interactions with the conference attendees is to be looked upon as an inspiration for understanding the magic of good human relations.

As I commence my term I seek your blessings and your wholehearted participation in all IAP activities happening in your ambit. IAP is nothing without the dedication of its members. I urge you to assume leadership roles and make a difference in whatever you choose to undertake.

I invite each of you to give me your suggestions and inputs to create a better future for the organization.

Thanking you once again,

With regards,

Dr. Santosh T. Soans

Secretary's Message

Dear Friends,

The Dream Team with the vibrant charismatic Dr Santosh Soans at the helm is already in place and has started moving earnestly to satiate the academic appetite of the IAPians across the country. Over 22 modules featuring Clinical Pediatrics as well as few burning issues on Child Advocacy & Quality Initiative Programs are set to roll in February itself. CIAP has planned to spread the modules in an equitable manner across all the zones with special attention "to reach the unreached" branches. We believe we have located the most suitable members to take the projects forward in the best possible manner.

At the CIAP Office also, it is time to ensure 'systems in place'. We are bound to provide proactive approach from the office to give the members the ultimate feel that 'IAP belongs to Members'. All the communications will be properly responded to by the Secretary or the office staff. The database updation will be made easy and near perfect with the website being revamped utilising cloud server and member log in and online data submission facilities. Official e mail ids will be provided shortly to all the state & district branches & the subspecialty chapters and all official communications will be routed thru this platform only.

Friends, we firmly believe 2018 is to happen as a revelation in IAP history. The whole CIAP team is working relentlessly and in unison to provide the best in academics & organisational level to our dear friends this academy year.

We are sure our organisational mouthpiece "Child India e- Bulletin" is keeping you all linked to the IAP activities of your friends as well as to the IAP Office Bearers at all levels. The inaugural issue in Jan 1st week has been widely acclaimed and the Editorial team led by the ever vibrant Dr Jeason Unni deserves all kudos for keeping this IAP brand flying high.

Sincere regards

Remesh Kumar R.

Honorary Secretary General
